New Chair's Remarks – Dr. Soussan Djamasbi

Dear SIGHCI members:

It is with great honor that I begin my term as the Chair of AIS SIGHCI. This past year, I had the privilege of working closely with Dianne Cyr and Dezhi Wu, the outgoing and past Chair of SIGHCI. I would like to extend my sincere appreciation to Dianne and Dezhi for helping me prepare for my new role. I also would like to take the opportunity to acknowledge Dianne's and Dezhi's outstanding leadership and express my heartfelt gratitude to all of those who served SIGHCI since its inception.

During my tenure as Chair of SIGHCI, I will continue with the goal of expanding the SIGHCI membership. With the growing ubiquity of information technology, research and development in the area of human computer interaction is becoming increasingly important to theory and practice. The opportunities for making contributions to the HCI field are both exiting and abundant, and our SIG is committed to expanding knowledge in this area. Thus, I would like to invite those who are interested in this field to help us grow our community and impact in the field. Please join us, if you are not a SIGHCI member yet. If you are already a member, thank you for supporting the SIG by renewing your membership.

I look forward to working with SIGHCI advisors, officers, and members to continue our presence in conferences such as AMCIS, ICIS, PACIS, ECIS, HCII, and HICCS as well as other venues. If you have any suggestions, feedback, or comments for SIGHCI, please do not hesitate to contact me (djamasbi@wpi.edu) or any other officer. I appreciate your continued support and participation in SIGHCI.

Looking forward to seeing you at SIGHCI events!

Soussan Djamasbi
AIS SIGHCI Chair

SIGHCI is the Special Interest Group on Human-Computer Interaction affiliated with the Association for Information Systems (AIS). The SIG was approved by the AIS council in Spring 2001 and was one of the first six SIGs announced on ISWorld in July 2001.

1. MISSION & TOPICS

SIGHCI provides a forum for AIS members to discuss, develop, and promote a range of issues related to the history, reference disciplines, theories, practice, methodologies and techniques, new developments, and applications of the interaction between humans, information, technologies, and tasks, especially in the business, managerial, organizational, social, and cultural contexts.

SIGHCI's mission is twofold:

- To facilitate the exchange, development, communication, and dissemination of information among AIS members;
- To promote research related to human-computer interaction within business, managerial, and organizational contexts among AIS members and to the larger community of practitioners and scholars.

To fulfill our mission, SIGHCI is involved in several conferences and workshops. In the past year, SIGHCI has organized HCI tracks or mini-tracks at AMCIS, ECIS, HCII, HICSS, ICIS, and PACIS, and has sponsored the Pre-ICIS Workshop on HCI in MIS.

2. OFFICERS, GOVERNANCE, AND BYLAWS

The officers serving from July 2011 to June 2012 were as follows:

Advisory Board
    Izak Benbasat, University of British Columbia
    Jane Carey, Arizona State University West
    Fiona Fui-Hoon Nah, Univ. of Nebraska-Lincoln
    Dennis Galletta, University of Pittsburgh
    Traci Hess, University of Massachusetts, Amherst
    Weiyin Hong, University of Nevada – Las Vegas
    Khawaja Saeed, Wichita State University
    Eleanor Loiacono, Worcester Polytechnic University
    Scott McCoy, College of William and Mary
    Joe Valacich, University of Arizona
    Jane Webster, Queen's University
    Ping Zhang, Syracuse University

Chair
    Dianne Cyr, Simon Fraser University
Past Chair
    Dezhi Wu, Southern Utah University

Chair-Elect
    Soussan Djamasbi, WPI
Secretary and Treasurer
    Na "Lina" Li, Baker College
Vice Chair for Membership
    Horst Treiblmaier, Vienna University of E & BA
Vice Chair for Research Resources
    Dongmin Kim, University of New Brunswick in Saint John
Vice Chair for Sponsorship
    Hong Sheng, Missouri University of Science and Technology
Vice Chair for Teaching Resources
    Sharon Tan Swee Lin, National University of Singapore
Newsletter Editor
    Greg Moody, University of Nevada – Las Vegas
Conf. Planning Chair: pre-ICIS HCI Workshop 2011
    Dianne Cyr, Simon Fraser University
    Dezhi Wu, Southern Utah University
Track Chairs: ICIS 2011
    Hock Hai Teo, National University of Singapore
    Hock Chuan Chan, National Univsity of Singapore
Conf. Planning Chairs: PACIS 2012
    Wei Quan Wang, City University of Hong Kong
    Adela Chen, Nanyang Technological University
Conf. Planning Chair: AMCIS 2012
    Na "Lina" Li, Baker College
    Khawaja Saeed, Wichita State University
    Richard Johnson, State University of New York at Albany
Conf. Planning Chair: ECIS 2013
    Netta Iivari, University of Oulu
    Fiona Nah, University of Nebraska-Lincoln
    Horst Treiblmaier, Vienna University of E & BA
Conf. Planning Chairs for HICSS 2011
    Joe Valacich, Washington State University
    Ryan T. Wright, University of San Francisco
    Angelika Dimoka, Temple University
Webmaster
    Yi "Jenny" Zhang, California State University, Fullerton
Listserv Manager
    Ping Zhang, Syracuse University

3. ACTIVITIES & ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Due to the high level of interest and support from enthusiastic SIG members and the hard work of the organizing team, SIGHCI continues to be one of the largest and most active AIS SIGs. In this limited space, we report the activities and accomplishments over the past year (July 2011 to June 2012).

3.1. Identity and Community Building

In keeping with its mission, SIGHCI continues to advance the goal of building a community of scholars who share common interests and who can appreciate and help develop each other's work. Our membership roster has over 310 members, of which 180 have a current membership with SIGHCI. The SIG continues to work with AIS to integrate SIG membership renewals with general conference registrations, and AIS membership renewals. This integration should result in a greater number of current (paid) members. The membership has a global impact representing over 30 countries and six continents. SIGHCI listserv is also open to non-members and has 618 subscribers (as of June 30th 2012) from across the world. In an effort to further support our members and the HCI community, all SIGHCI workshop papers from 2003 are available through the AIS e-Library at: http://aisel.aisnet.org/sighci/.

3.2. Communications and Outreach

In the past year, we have continued to promote awareness of SIGHCI, to extend the identity and reputation of SIGHCI, and to promote dialogs with the MIS community and other related external parties. These activities are carried out using four levels of communication (see prior year reports for details): SIG-wide communication, promotion of HCI in the MIS community, dialog with other HCI associations, and connections with industry.

3.3. SIGHCI Sponsored Conferences/Meetings

SIGHCI has sponsored and organized the annual Pre-ICIS Workshop on HCI Research in MIS since 2002. SIGHCI also participates in the following conferences: HCI track at AMCIS (Americas Conference on Information Systems) since 2002, HCI track at ECIS (European Conference on Information Systems) in 2006 and 2007, 2011-2012, paper sessions at HCII (HCI International Conference) since 2005, HCI mini-track at HICSS (Hawaiian International Conference on System Sciences) beginning in 2007, HCI track at ICIS (International Conference on Information Systems) since 2004, and HCI track at PACIS (Pacific-Asia Conference on Information Systems) since 2005. Table 1 summarizes these conferences/meetings.

3.4 AIS Transactions on Human-Computer Interaction

AIS Transactions on Human-Computer Interaction (THCI) in an AIS Journal managed by SIGHCI and offers a high quality publication outlet for researchers interested in HCI. The first issue of THCI was published in March 2009. We encourage SIGHCI members to contribute towards the progress of THCI by sending their best work to the Journal (visit the THCI website at: http://aisel.aisnet.org/thci/). We extend special thanks to Ping Zhang and Dennis Galletta (Editors of THCI) for their efforts in initiating and managing THCI. Table 2 provides an update on THCI from July, 2011 to June, 2012.

Table 2. THCI Summary (to June 7, 2012)
Total number of issues	13
Total number of submissions	127 (121 original and 6 editorial)
Total number of acceptances (including editorials)	45 (40 research papers and 5 editorials)
Acceptance rate	32.23%
Average time: submission to first decision	74 days
Average time: submission to final acceptance	182 days

3.5. Special Issues of Refereed Academic Journals

We are continuing the tradition of fast-tracking best, completed research papers presented at SIGHCI sponsored meetings to top IS and HCI academic journals. The authors of the best, completed research papers are invited to submit expanded versions of their papers for consideration in various MIS / HCI journals. Table 3 shows the list of journals in which manuscripts have been or are currently being fast tracked.

THCI	Pre-ICIS 2009-12, ICIS 2009-12, HICSS 2010-12	Galletta, Zhang	In progress

3.6. SIGHCI Annual Election

In February 2012, Eleanor Loiacono and Khawaja Saeed were appointed as the nominating/election committee by SIGHCI Past-Chair, Dezhi Wu, to help administer the annual election for the position of SIG Chair-Elect. Richard Johnson was nominated, and the election was completed on April 1, 2012. Richard Johnson was elected as the next Chair-Elect, effective July 1, 2012, with Soussan Djamasbi becoming the Chair on this same date.

4. SERVICES TO MEMBERS & COMMUNITIES

SIGHCI provides a range of services to its members (visit the SIGHCI website, http://www.sighci.org/, for more information about these services). The website has information about every aspect of SIGHCI, including the mission, bylaws, membership, listserv, conferences, newsletters, photo gallery, HCI related journals, research resources, teaching resources, and SIGHCI officers and contacts. In 2010 a redesign of the website was completed under the direction of Dezhi Wu. The project involved review of websites maintained by other AIS SIGs, discussion on appropriate design and features, and feedback on initial designs by SIGHCI officers. The new website was launched in 2011, and we are pleased to announce that the SIGHCI received the AIS Technology Challenge Award for this achievement. In order to provide greater access to research materials to our members and the SIGHCI community, all SIGHCI workshop papers from 2003 onwards are now available through the AIS e-Library at: http://aisel.aisnet.org/sighci.

5. FINANCIAL MATTERS

AIS maintains the accounting records for SIGHCI. The income and expenses for the fiscal year are listed in Table 4. Over the last eight years, SIGHCI has earned a surplus of $19,265.53. Due to tight budgets at universities, sponsorship for the SIGHCI workshop went down by 37% which was the main reason for the decrease in surplus. Some steps that we took to control costs were to reduce the number of printed newsletters and printing a reduced version of the SIGHCI workshop proceeding. We also took some steps to increase our membership income by encouraging members to renew their membership.

Table 4. Financial Data for Fiscal Year 2011-2012
Balance (7/1/2011)		$19,670.53
Revenue		$13,915.00
Membership Fees	1,195.00
Workshop Fees	5,970.00
Sponsorship	6,750.00
Expenses		$9,465.80
Newsletters	2,715.65
Workshop 2011	6,149.21
AMCIS 2011	600.94
Balance (4/30/2012)		$24,110.73

6. LOOKING FORWARD

It has been ten years since the inception of SIGHCI. On this 10th year anniversary, we would like to commend the many people who have contributed to the growth, development, and success of SIGHCI. SIGHCI has made significant progress through the support of its advisors and sponsors; the strength of its officers and their diligent work; members' keen interest and participation; the AIS office's cooperation and assistance; journal editors' strong beliefs in supporting our work and HCI research in MIS; many individuals' reviewing efforts and services; and those who contributed to SIGHCI in various other capacities. SIGHCI has developed as an excellent intellectual forum for scholars with a broad interest in human-computer interaction. I am confident that under the upcoming leadership of Soussan Djamasbi and Richard Johnson that the SIGHCI will continue to thrive. Finally, in the past year, as SIGHCI Chair, it has been my personal pleasure to work with an outstanding team of SIGHCI officers.

Review: 10th Annual Pre-ICIS Workshop on HCI Research in MIS

Shanghai, China, December 4, 2011

By Workshop Co-Chairs

Dianne Cyr, Simon Fraser University (cyr@sfu.ca)
Dezhi Wu, Southern Utah University, (wu@suu.edu)

The tenth Annual Workshop on HCI Research in MIS showcased high quality HCI research and attracted a large number of participants. Over 60 people participated in the one-day workshop, held in Shanghai, China on Dec. 4, 2011. The workshop attracted 43 submissions, which included 27 completed research papers and 16 research-in-progress papers. After a rigorous review process, 12 papers were accepted for presentation at the workshop, a 28% acceptance rate. The workshop also included 12 poster presentations.

The program committee, which consisted of 127 experts in HCI/MIS, made outstanding contributions to the success of the workshop by providing high quality feedback on the submissions. The paper sessions covered a range of interesting HCI topics including system use and success, interface design and trust, the user experience, and Web-based systems. Extensions of selected papers from the workshop were invited to participate in a fast-tracking opportunity with the AIS Transactions on Human Computer Interaction (THCI) and Journal of the Association for Information Systems (JAIS). We would like to thank Ping Zhang (THCI) and Anath Srinivasan (JAIS) for their editorial assistance in this process.

Fiona Nah receives Special Service Award

Dezhi Wu receives Outstanding Service Award

John Laugesen and Khaled Hassanein receive the Best Paper Award

This year's best paper award winner was determined through a rigorous review process. Of the 12 accepted submissions, three papers were selected as best paper candidates based on overall review scores, best paper nominations, and input from each of the Program Co-Chairs. Best reviewer candidates were then asked to independently rank the three best paper candidates. The best paper award went to "The Impact of Internet Health Information on Patient Adherence: The Role of Perceived Information Asymmetry" by Khaled Hassanein, John Laugesen, and Yufei Yuan.

The best reviewer award was determined by the Program Co-Chairs based on the following criteria: thoroughness of the reviews, helpfulness of the suggestions and feedback, clarity and organization of reviews, timeliness in returning the reviews. The best reviewer award went to Jan Landwehr.

Dezhi Wu received the outstanding service award for her efforts with SIGHCI. She has served in the following positions: Chair (2010 - 2011) of AIS Special Interest Group on Human-Computer Interaction, HCI Track Chair for AMCIS (2009-2010) and Workshop Co-Chair (2010-2011) for the Pre-ICIS Workshop on HCI Research in MIS. Fiona Nah received the Special Service Award for her long-term dedicated service and support to the SIGHCI.

We would like to thank the following individuals and organizations who greatly contributed to the success of the workshop:

- The program co-chairs Ron Cenfetelli, Alexandra Durcikova, and Richard Johnson who adeptly managed the review process.

- The 127 program committee members played an important role in shaping the content of the workshop and significantly contributed to the advancement of HCI research in Information systems by providing high quality feedback on the submissions.

- The local arrangement committee member, Chee Wei (David) Phang, managed the student volunteers (Yumei Luo and Zhaoran Xu), and on-site logistics for the workshop.

- The AIS headquarters office handled the registration for the workshop, workshop reimbursements, and provided timely information on registrations. Special thanks go to Pete Tinsley, Tenez Quarles, and Lise Fitzpatrick, and Litika Coleman.

- And, finally, the participants who demonstrated their confidence and support for the workshop and SIGHCI, and their tremendous interest and enthusiasm in HCI research in MIS.

The 7th Annual SIGHCI-sponsored HICSS mini-track was held January 4-7, 2012 in Maui at the Grand Wailea. The mini-track had 9 papers accepted for presentation at the conference (56% acceptance rate). These 9 papers were split across three sessions, which were very well-attended. Further, the following paper received a best paper nomination in the Collaboration track:

- Neurophysiological Correlates of Information Systems Self-reported Measures: A Multitrait Multimethod Study by Ortiz de Guinea Lopez de Arana, Titah, Léger, and Micheneau.

Many thanks to both the authors and reviewers who helped make the HICSS HCI mini-track a success!

AIS Technology Challenge Award

The SIGHCI was chosen to receive the AIS Technology Challenge Award at the award ceremonies at ICIS 2011 in Shanghai. The award is for contributions to advanced technology, and was in large part earned for the redevelopment of the SIGHCI website under the direction of Past Chair Dezhi Wu. Both Dezhi and current SIGHCI Chair, Dianne Cyr, accepted the award.

Call for Participation: Pre-ICIS Workshop on HCI Research

The 11th Annual Pre-ICIS Workshop on HCI Research in MIS

Sponsored by SIGHCI

15 December, 2012—Orlando, Florida

http://sighci.org/index.php?page=pre-icis2012&phpMyAdmin=622c4d141843t506dba2f

Workshop Co-chairs:

Dianne Cyr, cyr@sfu.ca — Soussan Djamasbi, djamasbi@wpi.edu

Important Dates:
- Submissions Due: August 26, 2012
- Acceptance Notification: September 30, 2012
- Extended Abstracts Due for Proceedings: October 14, 2012
- Workshop: December 16, 2012

Building upon past successes of the pre-ICIS HCI/MIS workshops as well as the tremendous interest in broad HCI issues exhibited by MIS colleagues, the AIS SIGHCI will hold its eleventh annual pre-ICIS HCI/MIS research workshop prior to ICIS 2012 in Orlando, Florida on Sunday, December 16, 2012.

Workshop Objective:
The objective of the workshop is to provide an open and constructive discussion forum of important HCI research in Information Systems that addresses the ways humans interact with information, technologies, and tasks - especially in business, managerial, organizational, social and/or cultural contexts. HCI in MIS is concerned with the macro level (versus the micro level) of Human-Computer Interaction analysis.

Special Theme Papers of JAIS and THCI:
The best, completed research papers from the workshop will be fast-tracked for publication consideration in the Journal of the Association for Information Systems (JAIS) - http://aisel.aisnet.org/jais/ and AIS Transaction on Human Computer Interaction (THCI) - http://aisel.aisnet.org/thci/

Submission:
The workshop will be accepting high quality research papers (completed research or research-in-progress papers) and posters that describe novel, early, and creative research ideas. The submissions should not be currently under review elsewhere and the papers/posters should have not appeared elsewhere.

Maximum length: Completed research papers, research-in-progress papers, and posters must not exceed 14, 7, and 3 single-spaced pages, respectively. The page limit includes all text, figures, and tables, but does not include the cover page, abstract, keywords, and references.

File Formats: Only Word file formats will be accepted. All submissions must be formatted for 8.5 x 11 inch paper (1 inch = 2.5 cm) and have 1 inch margins all around. Please use Times New Roman 12-point font with single spacing for the body of the paper. The first page of the manuscript should have a title, the type of the submission (complete research, research in progress, or poster), total word count of the submission, an abstract of 150 words or less, and a list of 5-6 keywords.

Submissions will undergo a double-blind review process. Authors should agree to provide timely reviews of at most two other submissions, if requested. Manuscripts should be in MS Word format and be submitted as email attachments to the workshop program co-chairs at (sighci.workshop@gmail.com) with the subject heading "HCI/MIS workshop submission." Authors can use the body of the email as the cover letter for the submission and should ensure that their identities do not appear in any part of the manuscript.

Call for Items: AIS SIGHCI Newsletter Volume 11, Issue 2

You are invited to offer items to the coming issue of AIS SIGHCI newsletter (Volume 11, Issue 2), to be published in November 2012. All items will be editorial reviewed. If you are interested, please send your pieces to the newsletter editor Greg Moody (greg.moody@unlv.edu) by October 15, 2012. Possible topics include, but are not limited to, the following:

1. HCI book review (800 – 1700 words). Please feel free to contact the editor beforehand if you intend to review a book or if you wish your own book to be reviewed.
2. Teaching HCI (up to 1700 words): teaching ideas or cases, sample syllabus, etc.
3. Industry voice (800 – 1700 words). We welcome HCI related essays from industry professionals.
4. Brief introduction of HCI research tools (up to 300 words).
5. Brief introduction of interesting HCI journals and/or special issues, including citation information, brief description, table of content (for special issues), etc.
6. CFP for HCI related journals or conferences.
7. News about SIGHCI members (up to 300 words for each item): honors and awards, professional activities, new appointments, interesting projects, new books or publications, etc.
8. Any other announcements (up to 300 words for each item).

To view previous newsletter issues, please visit http://sighci.org/index.php?page=newsletters
